

NATIONS AND LABOR TO HONOR GOMPERS AND TWO MISSIONS

Reception in Chicago Friday to Be Attended by Cabinet
Officers and Governors.

A number of prominent New Yorkers, including a delegation of labor officials, left for Chicago this morning to attend the international reception and mass meeting to be held in honor of Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor. The reception marks the return from Europe of two labor missions, one headed by Mr. Gompers, and was arranged by the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy.

The members of the two missions, which visited the battlefronts in Europe and conferred with organized labor abroad, will be guests of honor at the reception. They are as follows:

Samuel Gompers, William J. Brown, President International Bricklayers and Plasterers' Union; John A. Frey, editor International Molders Journal; C. L. Baine, President International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, and Edgar Wallace, editor United Mine Workers' Journal.

James Wilson, President Pattern Makers' League; F. J. McNulty, President Electrical Workers; John Golden, President Textile Workers' Mutual Green, President United Hatters, and Peter Josephine, member Brantle Cutlers' Union.

The reception will take place at the Chicago Auditorium Friday evening. All shades of American life will be represented. Public men and officials will be in attendance from thirty-six States, among them the President of the forty State Federations of Labor and Ambassadors from foreign nations. They will include Secretary McAdoo, Secretary Wilson, Gov. Whitman of New York; Cox of Ohio, Graham of Vermont, Bilbo of Mississippi, Gardner of Missouri, Williams of Oklahoma, Cornwell of West Virginia, Townsend of Delaware, Harrington of Maryland, Alexander of Idaho and Pleasant of Louisiana.

Magistrate McGuire III, presiding in the Harbor Court, is ill in his home No. 512 West 111th Street. His cases have been transferred to the Washington Heights Court. Magistrate Gross, who was holding the Yorkville Court, went yesterday afternoon to take care of the Heights Court.
